REPORTS

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS
Holston Annual Conference, Eighty-Ninth Session Held In
FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Knoxville, Tennessee
October 12, 1932

In the midst of an economic blizzard that has chilled to the core the financial assets of practically the whole world; amid social upheavals and moral let downs that are threatening the foundations and jeopardizing the safety of society; in this hour when the ardor of the stout hearted has been so dampened by the adverse currents of unemployment, cries of the hungry and the shivering of the naked, that they are almost ready to sound retreat; at such a time as this by the virtue of the trust that has been committed to us as District Superintendents, we are submitting to this eighty ninth session of the Holston Annual Conference our Composite Report. While this report is written and being read by one, it is the suggestions and mind of all.

Providential protection has been extended toward us all during the year. Practically no serious illness or death has overtaken any brother in the active ranks and all are pursuing the work assigned.

Our own Bishop Richard J. Cooke, and brother J. T. Ware, both retired, passed to their rewards during the year. Likewise Mrs. A. A. Newman, the wife of A. A. Newman, retired, passed to the other land. Mrs. T. H. Hodges, the wife of Rev. T. H. Hodges, deceased, joined her husband in the land of the redeemed.

Most of the retired ministers save in few instances, are enjoying reasonable health, likewise their wives, and also the widows of the deceased brethren are in good health.

EVANGELISM

The mission of the church is to save those who unfortunately have fallen into the ways of sin and to restore them to lives of honesty, temperance, and virtue; to transform the derelicts of society from a menace of their own and others happiness into an asset; to clothe them in their right mind that they may be found sitting in the temple of righteousness, as the demon possessed man of the Gadarenes was found in the days of the Master.

In carrying on the work of evangelism we must give attention to sane evangelists and methods. Fake and extravagant evangelists who are peripetetic prosyliters, and religious brawlers who profess that they have been called to deliver special messages from God such as none other have ever received, whose sole motive is to excite the emotions of the people for mercenary purposes. Such evangelists should have no place among us, for in the end they do more harm than good.

So much of the evangelism among our own men is not conducive to religious balance, it is highly colored with emotionalism in its outcome. The souls of the people are not deeply stirred in the real things of God and when temptations overtake them or misfortunes come they faint and fall by the wayside.

The church needs a type of evangelism, that has heights and depths, that pierces through and through the whole man, so that dishonesty, drunkenness, and vices have no place in the life, but purity and holiness of heart may be the goal for all.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

The last twenty years shows a very interesting study in church membership in the Holston Conference, as the Minutes of the Conference will reveal. In 1912 there were 35,346 members reported; in 1916, 41,141; in 1920, 42,145; in 1924, 46,175; in 1928, 47,321; in 1931, 46,409. What 1932 will show remains to be seen. As a result of evangelism many have come into the church, unless our losses are too heavy we should make a good gain this year.

We are convinced that a more careful following up the results of evangelism and shepherding of the membership in the church is absolutely essential on the part of all. We are aware of the fact that there are many members who never go inside of the church and many more who are only occasional attendants; to make this vast number effective and to bring them into vital relation to Christ and the church, before they are entirely lost is our major task. Let us be good shepherds for the Master.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Jesus launched his ministry on a teaching base both to children and adults and the purpose of Religious Education in the local church is to carry out the methods of the Master Teacher. As it pertains to the life of the child; is to direct the oncoming generations in the ways of civic obedience, moral righteousness, and spiritual wholeness, so that they may be held in the ways of right as far as humanly possible; rather than let the young drift into the ways of wrong and then have the heavy task of bringing them back to the ways of right after they have gone astray.

We are of the firm opinion that such a program of religious instructions as is being carried on by H. G. Williamson and his staff is of inestimable value both to the old and the young. Especially is this true of the young, since through teacher training courses they are provided with better teachers in the church schools, and also in the Vacation Bible Schools; this give them a deeper conception of the Bible and a broader knowledge of the Christian life. We urge with renewed vigor that we carry on this program, as far as possible support it with both our presence and means, and as far as possible urge others so to do.

Our Colleges: The University of Chattanooga, Tennessee Wesleyan College, Murphy Collegiate Institute, and Pittman Community Center are all doing a special work, each in their own field for the building up of the manhood and the womanhood of this our section. Their efforts thus far have been crowned with signal success. All have fine students bodies this year and we bespeak for each fine success, such success that would enlist the confidence and support of all. At Tennessee Wesleyan College in early summer some two weeks were given to the Summer School of Theology under the direction of Dr. R. A. Kilburn and his instructors; a goodly number of ministers attended this school and were highly benefitted.

Also at the same college, H. G. Williamson and his group of helpers, supported by help from the General Board of Education of the Church for some ten days carried on a Summer School of Religious Education for the training of teachers to go into the local churches and teach teachers and also to carry on Vacation Bible Schools. The school at Tennessee Wesleyan College was a fine success as were many Vacation Bible Schools, throughout the conference.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

In July at the Holston Assembly Grounds near Gatlinburg, Tenn., Dean Walter A. Smith and a group of teachers and lecturers called the Epworth Leaguers to an Institute. A fine group of young people responded and the week spent was of great value to the Epworthians. This was the first year to use the Assembly Grounds and all were delighted with the situation.

WORLD SERVICE

We have been unable to find a better way in which to carry on the work throughout the church than through the agencies we have been using for the last few years. There are a few minor changes in the way which we are to carry on our World Service Activities. However, few these changes, there will need to be some promotional work among the membership so that they may have a clear understanding as to the method of securing the funds, the amounts to be secured and a clear statement of the purpose for which we are securing them and the manner of the distribution of the same.

Judging from the various financial obstacles that have confronted other promotional enterprises, we are fearful that the giving to World Service causes will suffer some loss this year. Yet the slight dropping off giving must not cripple our entire enterprises for the promotion of the church, but we must continue to carry on in the best way possible.

Notwithstanding the shrinkage in finances and the falling off of business through the year we have made some progress in the way of repairing churches and in a few instances of building new churches. Our major problem is to care for the payment of churches that have been previously built. We are sure that if many congregations could have foreseen the present financial condition of the country and the slacking up of business they probably would have done differently in the promotion of their building programs. For we find many congregations that are groaning under heavy debts, so heavy, unless something out of the ordinary happens they will lose their church property. A word of warning might not be out of place to those who are contemplating the erection of new churches, it should be seen to that they do not erect buildings which are beyond the ability of the congregations to pay for. As nothing so discourages or handicaps a congregation as to have a heavy debt hanging over them.

SOCIAL SERVICE

We never lived in a better day in which to carry on the Social Service work of the church than in this day. For in this generation there never was a time when it was more greatly needed; and in the time when the social work is most needed is our opportunity to do something really heroic for God.

The churches activities are becoming more varied as we enlarge our sphere of work so as to include the physical, mental, moral, and spiritual life of mankind. This is as it should be since religious encompasses the whole man. Year after year our social work becomes more effective and we are pleased to note the degree of progress that has been made this year.

TEMPERANCE

We are not unmindful of the fact that there are millions of dollars being spent and all kinds of propaganda and falsehoods being circulated and every means both fair and foul being used to undermine the morale of the church and to mislead the people so as to break down the temperance sentiment in such a way that they may be able to repudiate the Eighteenth Amendment and flood this country again with all kinds of intoxicating drinks. The hour is ours to strike; by the grace of Almighty God may we see to it by practice, voice, and vote that this threatening tide of intemperance does not rise higher, but shall be swept back and our country remain lawfully dry.

Since for so many years we have struggled amid all kinds of hardships to pull the temperance flag almost to the top of the flag pole, why let it be pulled back down, why not pull it on to the top? One of the most distressing thing that could come to this country is to have it become wet with all the horrors that come to a drunken people. We are happy to know that all of our ministers and almost all of our membership are lined up against the temperance evils and so teach it to our young.

WOMEN'S WORK

With pleasure we record the continuation of the Woman's Home and Foreign Societies, and the Ladies Aid work in the church. While the progress may not have been as large as in former years, yet splendid work has been done by all these organizations, and they have given a good account of themselves throughout the year.

MEN'S WORK

Our laymen have not deserted their jobs, but through their varied organizations have carried on. While all they mapped out to do was not accomplished yet signal achievements have blessed their work.

PENSION FUND

Since outside incomes are falling off so rapidly and the compensation for the retired ministers is growing smaller and many of the retired men are facing want; we had hoped that the Pension Fund for the retired ministers would have gone on faster and ere this would have reached the goal of at least Two Hundred Thousand Dollars, but impossible things have placed this beyond our reach. We are convinced on the account the shrinkage in funds, while we regret to think of such a course, it will be impossible to maintain a full time man in the field for this cause. However, we are glad for what has been accomplished so far and we are still hoping that something may take place in the near future that we may again take up this Pension Fund work and complete it.

THE OUTLOOK

The advance of the real Kingdom of God is not necessarily tied up with material prosperity, but many times makes its greatest advance under adverse circumstances. We feel sure the church will rise to meet the present day situations and needs. Being so sorely pressed throughout the year we will need to beware that we do not take the present year standards as a base for which to set our standards for next year.

THE MINISTERS LOYALTY

While seemingly many handicaps have confronted most of the ministers during the year: financial expectations have not been up to the standards of other years, yet they have carried on in a fine way and performed their work with zeal. Their sacrificial spirit has been fully verified and they are to be highly commended for their loyalty to the church. The sacrificial spirit of the ministers has been met by the sacrifices of many laymen who have given their best to the church and the cause of Christ. Their shrinkage in income has made their giving felt more than in former years. Looking at it from the angle of spiritual accomplishments the year has closed with signal success and will equal, if not surpass the results of other years.

With thankfulness to Him who makes it possible for us to have a place in His Kingdom to honor Him; and to the church for its kindness to us, we submit this report.

Sincerely,

E. O. WOODYARD.

STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE

For more than a half century the church has stood for Temperance, and has opposed the liquor traffic, illicit or legalized. By education and all other methods possible it has, by hard work, placed the Eighteenth Amendment in our National Constitution—outlawing the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages—resulting in national prohibition. For a long number of years prohibition has been in effect. As a national policy it stands or falls on its merits. We cannot argue its merits or demerits here. Since the adoption of national prohibition the advocates of liquor have done all in their power to break down the law for the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment, and are seeking to nullify and modify it so as to re-establish the legal sale of intoxicating liquor, and are now clamoring for light wines and beers.

In view of the persistent propaganda to make the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and modify the Volstead Act a national issue, it therefore becomes the duty of the church, and all the Christian citizens to reaffirm their well wrought convictions as to the fundamental rightness of the principles of prohibition. Theoretically, everybody believes that the church should stand for Temperance, but when her convictions are crystallized into law, those agencies fattening financially by the sale of liquor, and those who desire to drink, bitterly oppose. They are willing that we worship God so long as “Diana” is not taken from the throne. Your committee believes:

1. That, the church cannot evade a moral issue, or compromise a principle of right—hence her duty is clear with reference to prohibition.

2. That to take neutral ground is to lose that for which she has fought for 100 years, and would mean a surrender to the liquor interests. Methodism does not, and will not surrender to any unrighteous foe, we have always, and do now bitterly oppose the liquor traffic.

Therefore, be it Resolved:

1. That we as members of the Holston Conference, now in session in Knoxville, Tenn., do reaffirm our strong support of the Eighteenth Amendment, and declare our purpose to support only those seekers for public office who declare their intention to preserve what we have long fought for, and believe to be right—National Prohibition as proposed by the said Amendment.

2. That, we will strenuously oppose the proposed policy of legalizing the sale of light wines and beer.

3. That we respectfully admonish our people to study this issue, enlighten themselves, and act intelligently on this great and serious question, and not to be mislead by the propoganda of the wets.

4. That, as ministers and members we will not be intimidated into silence, or neutrality, but will bestir ourselves and exercise our rights as Christian citizens.

5. That we pledge our co-operation with other agencies working for this great cause in our land, and specially endorse the program of the Tennessee Anti-Saloon League under direction of John F. Phillips, Superintendent of the Tennessee work.

As a church we are committed to a social creed. As Christian men and ministers of Jesus Christ we must not only stand for and be committed to but go further and practice the social gospel. Let no man or group of men think for a moment that when we speak of the gospel that we leave Christ out of our program. In facing all the issues before the people, economic, social, moral and otherwise, we offer to a much confused world as a perfect remedy and solution the gospel of Jesus Christ. Jesus is the need of the world, and when Christianity is lived as Christ lived it will effectively solve all human needs. Have we the courage to practice as well as preach the social gospel? The whole world needs a whole Christ to meet the whole needs of every heart and life. The church must not only be Christian in theory but in life or the church cannot live in this generation. Selfishness, lust and greed, social prejudice, unrighteousness and all unsocial qualities must be utterly destroyed and Christiaan fellowship with a neighborly spirit restored and maintained. Along this line let us think, to this end let us pray and for this purpose let us preach and live for its realization.

A DECLARATION OF OUR SOCIAL POLICY

1. Believing that war is not only partly but wholly un-Christian and the parent of most of, if not all our economic, moral and social troubles. We approve, endorse, and commend all international efforts for disarmament, the curtailment of Military and Naval expenditures at the earliest possible moment.

2. As a church we consecrate ourselves and pledge our best efforts and co-operate with all the sane agencies at work for the relief of the distressed conditions growing out of the unemployment of more than 1,000,000 men and women in the United States. We further believe that a social order that permits the few to grow rich and arrogant and feed on the best that our civilization can give and let the many go hungry, poorly clad, uncomfortably housed is deficient in Christian principles and is fundamentally and morally wrong and challenges our most serious consideration of our Christian leadership. We believe an honest effort to apply the principles of Jesus Christ to our industrial relationship is the only solution for dire maladjustments.

3. We urge a better inter-racial understanding, sympathy and co-operation and condemn mob violence and all lawlessness and call for a sane, strict enforcement of all laws without evasion or discrimination. We need a more orderly world and Jesus Christ is our only solution.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

To The Pastors and Laymen of the Holston Conference:

We, your Conference Board of Education, entrusted with the promotion of the Religious Education interests, of both church and college, desire to present for your consideration the following as pertaining to Religious Education in the local church:

We urge, that with renewed vigor, the program such as has been carried on by Brother H. G. Williamson and his staff for the past six years be maintained and loyally supported.

We are of the firm opinion that such a program has been of value beyond estimate, as it has been both intensive and extensive until its influence has been felt in practically every section of our Conference. We are proud of the fact that our denominational Board of Education has taken special occasion to praise and commend the program carried out in our Conference.

This program has accomplished the following results: Standards in the local church schools have been raised. Vacation Bible Schools have reached as many as 5,000 children in a single year. Teachers and leaders have received new encouragement and larger vision to the extent that we feel that our entire program has been placed upon a more substantial basis.

These results must be conserved; and by such conservation, yet larger yield of fruitfulness from the endeavor that has been, and is about to be made, is certain.

Therefore, we recommend as follows:

I. If the Cabinet of the Holston Conference finds the re-appointment of Brother H. G. Williamson to his present task consistent with its plans for the welfare of our Conference we respectfully ask such re-appointment.

II. The program for the coming year should contain the following items: (a) careful financial cultivation; (b) supervision of Vacation Schools; (c) leadership training; (d) a Summer School of Religious Education; (e) office promotion in preference to field promotion.

III. The financial support for such a program requires the following budget:

Salary and House Rent	$2,500
Printing and Office Supplies	200
To be applied on Indebtedness	450
Travel	250
Miscellaneous	100

Total$3,500

IV. These funds may be raised from the following sources:

Designated World Service Gifts	$2,000
Rally Day	800
Religious Education Day	500
Fiscal Year Margin	150

With the exception of the first item of designated gifts, these figures represent minimum amounts, which should be enlarged.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES OF THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE

The division of educational institutions presents the following with reference to the work of the institutions within the bounds of the Holston Conference:

We are convinced that all three institutions—University of Chattanooga, Tennessee Wesleyan College, and Murphy Collegiate Institute—are maintaining high standards of scholarship and are doing excellent work. We believe that these institutions are endeavoring to influence the lives of their students to definite Christian living. We are convinced that the business management of these institutions is good and that the rates charged are as low as can be arranged in keeping with the high standards of the institutions. We believe that the facilities offered by these institutions, the quality of work done by them, and the emphasis placed upon religious life are such as to deserve the patronage and support of our people and that the needs of the institutions are such as to demand this patronage and support.

We believe that the church school and college is as vitally needed to shape the life and ideals of today as in any previous time in the history of our nation.

Quoting from a report of the Methodist Educational Association: "It is the influence of religion that has humanized and vitalized these institutions and made possible the stream of Christian leadership they have sent forth. It is this religious element in these schools that has made them such a leavening force in the total educational life of the nation. They have held American education from total secularization and are increasingly influencing it towards a Christian ideal."

One thing is certain if the church school and college are to continue to function and to render the service which is needed they must receive adequate support by the church. This brings a responsibility upon every conference for the support of the institutions which it patronizes. Emphasis is given to this responsibility in the legislation of the recent General Conference which states: "Contributions from the supporting territory must be regarded by the institutions as the more dependable source of income from the church."

We recommend that increased attention be given by pastors and laymen alike to the importance of directing the attention of the young people of our section to the opportunities offered at the University of Chattanooga, Tennessee Wesleyan College and Murphy Collegiate Institute, and that full encouragement be given them to enroll at one of these institutions; also that our people throughout the Conference be urged to support these institutions in every way possible.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HOLSTON ASSEMBLY ASSOCIATION TO THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE

The purchase of a tract, consisting of approximately 90 acres, located on LeConte Road, three-fourth miles South of Gatlinburg, has been completed.

The Holston Assembly Grounds were officially opened on Saturday, July 2, 1932, with the beginning of a camp for Boys', which continued for two weeks.

On Sunday, July 3, Rev. Walter L. Russell preached the first sermon and conducted the first public religious service on the Assembly Grounds.

Following the camp for Boys', the Epworth League Institute was in session for one great week, then a camp for Girls' lasting two weeks and a two weeks camp meeting was held.

We would note the following improvements made during the year: The old residence remodeled for a caretaker's home; a commodious dining hall, a sleeping cabin, a dynamo house, and a chlorinator house have been built, an attractive bridge has been erected over Mill Creek at the main entrance to the grounds; an efficient electric light system installed; telephone line put into operation connecting our grounds with the outside world via Gatlinburg; a temporary water system laid, and a fine swimming pool on Grassy Branch.

Old buildings and fences have been cleared away and the debris removed from several acres, where seventy desirable cottage sites have been surveyed and plotted, and are now ready for lease on most reasonable terms.

Three residence cottages have already been built, and several more are in prospect by the time for opening the season next year.

Our present and pressing need for development and progressive operations is an auditorium and some twenty to thirty frame sleeping cabins.

Looking forward to our program for 1933 we anticipate one month each of camps for boys and camps for girls, one week of Epworth League Institute, and a two weeks camp meeting which we hope will become an annual event.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. HILL, President

W. BAXTER GASS, Secretary.

RESOLUTION ON CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

Whereas, there has arisen during the past years increasing difficulty in finding entertainment for the annual Conference; and

Whereas, the last General Conference has increased the personnel of the Annual Conference by adding laymen to its body, thereby making it even more difficult in the matter of entertainment; and

Whereas, there has been developed within the bounds of the Knoxville District the Holston Assembly grounds which, when properly developed, would offer sufficient, adequate, and most pleasant entertainment for the sessions of the Conference from year to year;

Therefore, be it Resolved, That the Knoxville District of the Holston Conference does hereby recommend to the Annual Conference to be held in First Church, Knoxville, October 12, 1932;

First: That a Commission consisting of a minister and a layman from each District in the Conference be appointed the first day of the Annual Conference for the purpose of studying plans and methods now in operation in other Conferences, and submit to this Conference their findings and recommendations.

Second: Friday morning of the Conference session at 10 o'clock shall be set aside for the discussion of these findings.

Third: We recommend for the Committee's consideration the matter as above set forth relating to the Assembly Grounds of the Holston Conference as the permanent meeting place for said Conference.

W. B. MORGAN, Chairman.

GEO. J. CRESWELL, Secretary.

POINTS OF NEW PLAN FOR CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

1. That the Committee is favorable to the Holston Assembly grounds as a place for the Conference to meet at such time as in the judgment of the Conference it is wise to go there.

2. For the present we recommend that the Conference adopt a Central City as a seat for the Conference sessions and that Knoxville be so designated, if acceptable to the Churches of Knoxville—and provide for accepting invitations from other cities of the Conference when such are received.

3. We recommend that a Conference Entertainment Fund be established which, for the present, would include expenses of the program, and entertainment of retired preachers. This fund to be pro-rated to the Districts of the Conference.

4. If this plan is adopted we recommend that a Committee be appointed to work out further details of the plan.

RESOLUTION ON UNIFICATION

To The Holston Conference, Greetings:

Whereas, There is a growing sentiment in the Church world looking toward the reunion or merger of religious bodies, and

Whereas, Those denominations which have already united such as the United Church of Canada and the recent union in England have resulted in a deeper and wider influence for Christ's Kingdom, and

Whereas, In these United States there has existed for more than eighty-five years many divisions in Methodism which have limited to that extent the influence of the Church and defeated the prayer of our Lord when He said: "I pray that they shall be one even as we are," and

Whereas, At this session of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church expressions of fraternal interest and hope for the union of Methodism have come from those of other Methodism's, therefore

Be it Resolved, That this Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church expresses its confidence in Commission appointed by the General Conference looking toward union with other Methodisms and urge that plans for a united Methodism in the United States follow the steps of British Methodism the consummation of which has given impetus to all these plans.

Respectfully submitted,

W. B. MORGAN.

RESOLUTION COMMENDING ADVOCATE

Whereas, Dr. Orein W. Fifer, Editor of The Christian Advocate, Cincinnati Edition, has honored the Holston Conference with this first visit and has delighted and edified us by a graphic and entertaining presentation of the possibilities and difficulties of this great paper, and

Whereas, The Cincinnati Advocate is the official Advocate for the promotion and publicizing of our Southern work, particularly of the Chattanooga Area, and is under fraternal bonds to give space and thought to our churches and Area interests,

Therefore, be it Resolved, That we assure Dr. Fifer of our personal satisfaction in his visit and pledge to him our best interest in helping him to serve our great constituency and to do what we can to secure subscribers for the paper.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS TO HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE

For central location, for the grace of Southern hospitality, and for such hearty welcome, it is the opinion of your Committee on Resolutions that this City of Churches and of good people, Knoxville, is hard to surpass. Being the Chief Gateway to the Great Smoky Mountains and the National Park therein, it is the pride of East Tennessee and it is therefore fitting and proper that it has been designated as the seat of future Conferences when not invited elsewhere.

The pastors and the people of the entire Knoxville District are to be complimented for the gracious, friendly and efficient manner in which they have provided for all the needs of the delegates and visitors to the Conference while in their midst.

We cannot soon forget the mountain-top experiences of this Eighty-Ninth Session of the Holston Conference. Its total atmosphere has been one of helpfulness and lofty inspiration. To be sure it has had its lights and shadows. In this time of gloom, pungent pessimism and financial handicaps this session of Conference was approached with fear and trembling and with a whispered prayer for the Christ of the American Road to guide us out of it all. We believe we have seen convincing evidence that as a body we have walked with that Blessed One over the rugged places, have scaled the heights of Difficult Mountain, and now see from her heights the light of a new day and a new victory. We verily believe that we have learned at a price that unpaid balances on salaries in the past and promised cuts in the budgets of the future are not the real sustenance of life and also that "man shall not live by bread alone."

Back of all this is the love and the grace of a loving Father as expressed through His people here as they have thrown open wide their doors and spread bounteously their tables and through the visiting speakers as they have spread before us these great spiritual feasts.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That we express our heartfelt gratitude and sincere appreciation:

To Bishop Wallace E. Brown, D. D., LL. D., for his dynamic and inspiring devotional addresses and the gracious and brotherly way in which he has presided over all the sessions of the Conference.

To Dr. King Vivion, President of Southwestern University for his vital, inspiring and challenging evangelistic sermons. God send us more men such as he to strangely warm our minds and our hearts and stir us into new life for the Kingdom. God bless you King Vivion for pushing out the spiritual horizons for us!

To the preachers and the people of the Knoxville District, Superintendent W. H. Ragan, Dr. W. B. Morgan and his people, and all pastors and lay hosts of the city for their hearty welcome, splendid co-operation and hospitality during our stay in their midst.

To the Book Concern, for sending to us such splendid personalities as Brother and Mrs. Fritsche with such a bounteous display of books and materials.

To the Layman in the Holston Conference, for their presence in such large numbers not only at the Association meeting but also to sit in the Conference these two days to which they are now entitled, for their hearty co-operation and interest in the great task of Kingdom Building.

To Mrs. Wallace E. Brown for her gracious and lovely spirit and her inspiring messages. We welcome you—the power behind the throne.

To Dr. W. S. Bovard for his inspiring address of challenge to the Educational task of the Church.

To Dr. Stewart Patterson for his challenging message on the burning Prohibition issue.

To Dr. Harry Caldwell for his great and gripping message in behalf of Foreign Missions. May we ever keep the central mission of our Lord in our hearts, "Ge ye into all the world."

To Dr. J. M. Roland for his message in behalf of the Preachers' Aid Society.

To the Cabinet, Officers, and Committees for the harmonious spirit in which they performed their work.

To Mrs. John S. Swann and her fine helpers who furnished and so artistically arranged the many beautiful flowers in the church during the Conference.

To Mrs. R. B. Stout for her unfailing good humor and faithfulness in assigning the guests to their places of entertainment.

To Mrs. Lillian Daily as Conference Hostess for her many kindnesses and thoughtfulness.

To Mesdames Bean and Webb who so carefully cared for the Post Office.

To Mrs. Beulah Waller, the efficient nurse in charge of the emergency ward.

To Mrs. Ruth Aston and her faithful corps of workers in the kitchen and dining room.

To the newspapers of the city for their generous space given to the reporting of the Conference sessions.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. DYE.

W. E. BISHOP.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Since there is unavoidable confusion and misunderstanding between the Board of Ministerial Training and Committee on Conference Relations concerning the fitness of candidates for Admission on Trial:

And, since certain essential facts could be obtained and clarified by the cooperation of the Cabinet of the above committees;

Therefore, be it Resolved, That after this year (1932) the Board of Ministerial Training, Committee on Conference Relations, and District Superintendents meet in joint session before any names are presented to the Conference for consideration, and that each case be carefully gone over as to qualifications and acceptability to avoid any questionable cases being presented.

REPORT OF THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

Your Conference Board of Ministerial Training holds responsibility for four different educational endeavors by which our Church admits men to, and ordains them for, its ministry. A brief review of this work and some suggestions concerning the plans and hopes of your Board follow:

The plan of procedure in the Traveling Preachers' Course is well known to all of you; however, the experience of your Board suggests that the educational qualifications necessary for Reception on Trial need to be better understood. The Discipline states that the candidate must meet requirements for admission to college. By interpretation of your Bishop, the rule says the candidate must have fifteen units of high school credit, acquired in the classroom of a secondary school. Formal Certification of such units by the school where the work was done, must be presented to the chairman of this Board before examinations will be given. Training under tutors or through correspondence will not meet this requirement.

It naturally follows from the rule for Reception on Trial that the work of the course is expected to be of college standard. The methods of teaching and the student's preparation call for more than the reading of a book and the writing of answers to ten examination questions on that book. The student must prepare a series of papers and employ collateral sources of information in getting a constructive grasp of the subject treated. He must show competence in handling the medium of his expression. He must manifest a degree of courage in facing what have been to him hitherto unknown ideas in the thinking world. Grading upon the part of the instructor has reached new levels. Brilliance, as symbolized in grades of 90, 95, 98, is more rarely found, and the perfection of 100 is hardly to be obtained. In the setting of these standards, your Board of Ministerial Training is attempting faithfully to carry out the responsibilities placed upon it by the authorities of the Church.

Local Preachers' Courses.

"Accepted Supply Pastors" are amenable to the Conference Board of Ministerial Training for instruction and examination. Local preachers who are not supplied are examined by their district or quarterly conferences. Brother R. C. Elzey is chairman of the Board's committee for accepted supply pastors, and such preachers should make arrangements for their work with him. Accepted supply pastors are urged to take the traveling preachers' course, beginning with the studies for reception on trial.

Accepted supply pastors who do not elect the traveling preachers' course, who are candidates for orders, and all other local preachers who are candidates for orders, carry on their study through correspondence with the Commission on Courses of Study, 150 Fifth Ave., New York City. Your Conference Board does not do this work, but accepts certification of its completion from the office of the Commission.

Graduate Courses.

The Commission on Courses of Study, realizing that education is a process continuing through life, has made possible courses of study for those preachers who have graduated from the four-year courses. These graduate courses are pursued through correspondence with leading religious teachers of our denomination. A committee of this Board, with Brother M. M. Moore as chairman, has been appointed to promote the use of the graduate courses.

Summer School.

Your Board cooperates with the Boards of four other Annual Conferences in an Annual Summer School of Ministerial Training. This School will hold a ten-day session at Tennessee Wesleyan College, June 12-22, 1933. To a faculty composed of members of the cooperating Boards are added special lecturers from our leading pulpits, universities and seminaries. No student in the Conference Courses of Study can afford to miss the opportunities of this school. In case his judgment errs, the Discipline helps him, for it states that he must attend a Summer School of Ministerial Training where such exists. This rule applies to accepted supply pastors as well as to traveling preachers. All examinations will be given at the Summer School. No examinations will be given at the Annual Conference except to candidates for Reception on Trial.

The Holston Conference Board of Ministerial Training expresses its thanks for the leadership of the Commission on Courses of Study as administered under the direction of Dr. Allan MacRossie. The Board is especially grateful for the Training Conference, held in Chattanooga, December 16-18, 1931, under the auspices of the Commission. The Board also desires to express its gratitude to Mrs. John A. Patten for her generous help so graciously given to its Summer School program.

Respectfully submitted for the Board by,
R. A. KILBURN, Chairman,
D. L. JONES, Registrar.

EVANGELISM

Methodism was born in a revival and has always approved every effective form of evangelism.

In recent years, throughout Protestantism, evangelism has been receiving increased attention. The church press is constantly bringing this matter to our minds. Much emphasis has been laid upon personal evangelism as well as educational evangelism. We recognize that within the last decade or so the pendulum has swung away from mass evangelism. To face the matter squarely we are forced to raise the question whether we have not written and talked about evangelism far in excess of our practice in this direction, especially if by evangelism we mean the work of bringing individuals to know God in Jesus Christ. However, we are glad to note that there have been aggressive evangelistic programs throughout the Conference this year as evidenced not only by the number of meetings held, but more by the increase of membership. Yet, no doubt there is much room and much need for improvement in this field. We can but deplore the lack of Christian teaching and training in the home, for which there can be no substitute. Surely this is a task that challenges the efficiency, if not the existence, of the church.

REPORT OF THE WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL OF HOLSTON CONFERENCE

A year ago following the plan of the general World Service Council of the church, this conference was organized and a beginning made in organizing the entire conference. But it certainly can be called only a beginning.

As chairman of the group I called the council to develop the same organization in every district and in every charge. It was impossible for me to go into every district but a man was appointed in each district to work with the district superintendent in the district organization.

All of the districts did some work but more or less incomplete in organizing a council in each charge. At least two of the districts held three to five days cultivation conferences, and organized many of the charges. Every district superintendent reports that he promoted the organization and urged upon every pastor to organize his church or churches on the council basis.

As I said this was only a beginning. As the Council going out we hope the new Council next year will carry forward this work until it can be reported that the last church has been organized and the last member is given an opportunity to know the facts regarding the Kingdom around the world.

We recommend that immediately after conference that each district superintendent organize the district council and plan for a cultivation district or group meeting. If the missionary spirit lags in our church life, everything lags. Some think that pressing for missionary call will interfere with the local giving. Nothing could be further from the truth. When a man sees that whole world and the desperation of men in sin everywhere he will be a better Christian and will do more for his own home enterprise.

C. W. SULLIVAN, Chairman.

We also hold a sixty-days note by permission of the Conference in amount of $355.00, all given by our strongest Churches. Special Note: I have endorsed the Trinity Church note $355.00 and post-dated checks, First Church, Knoxville, to T. V. Peters, Treasurer, for Conference Claimants, and listed them and returned checks not made good in disbursement column because they are entered as credits in the Minutes against my total receipts. These two items bring the Conference receipts, cash, note and post-dated checks turned in to me to $10,701.04. My recapitulation total of $10,374.00 does not include the $355.00 note as that was temporarily entered in the voucher column. The post-dated checks, supposed to be held only a few days at first, are entered as cash credits in the Minutes.

Since the First and Trinity Churches could not pay in cash at Conference, all they wished, we think it highly commendable to be willing to issue a note and checks to be paid later, especially since the amounts go to Conference Claimants. The Stewards are paying the Claimants by the quarter which will work no inconvenience on the Stewards or the Conference Claimants. If the $18.00 and $5.00 checks are made good we will immediately pay same to T. V. Peters, Treasurer, for Conference Claimants.

WILLIAM F. PITTS, Treasurer,
P. O. Box 831, Elizabethton, Tennessee.

Memoirs

BISHOP RICHARD JOSEPH COOKE

Bishop Richard Joseph Cooke was born in New York City, January 31, 1853, and died at his home, Athens, Tenn., December 25, 1931.

He came South at an early age and was timekeeper for a railroad construction company for a short while. He began preaching in the bounds of Central Tennessee Conference, and sometimes told his friends that he received $50 and a pair of socks for the first year's work.

He graduated from East Tennessee Wesleyan University, Athens, Tenn., in 1880. Afterward he went to the University of Berlin, Germany, for special study. For a short term he was pastor of our church in Atlanta, Ga. His pastorates in Holston Conference were at Cleveland and First Church, Knoxville. He taught in our Athens and Chattanooga Universities for some years. He was editor of "The Methodist-Advocate Journal," 1891-1904. He was elected bishop in 1912 and assigned to Portland, Oregon, and four years after to Helena, Montana. A break in health caused his retirement in 1920.

His first marriage was to Eliza Gettys Fisher, April 20, 1881, who died in 1904. His second marriage was to Ella B. Fisher, in 1908. Four children—Richard, James, William and Frank—were born to the first union. Richard died in childhood and Frank just as he was reaching manhood.

The editor was his student in theology at Chattanooga, his pastor at Athens, and his neighbor for all the years of his retirement. His devotion to duty, his judicial mind, his exacting research for knowledge, his scholarly tastes—above all, his unshaken faith in God—these and many other qualities dominated his life.

He did not wish any bars of mourning in "The Advocate" when his death was announced. In one of our last conversations, just a few days before his fatal illness, he spoke of his forty-seven years of active ministry and said: "If you live to write of me when death has come, you may, if you wish, say I tried to do the work to which the church assigned me." Even so.

When he had finished his review of Dr. Brightman's book, "The Problem of God," he let me review it. I insisted that he submit it for publication. It seems he had not thought much of doing so. I wrote to Dr. L. O. Hartman, editor of "Zion's Herald," who had published some reviews of the book, that I had just seen an estimate of it from the pen of Bishop Cooke. Dr. Hartman wrote immediately and asked the bishop to send it to him for examination. It went forward. It appeared in the pages of "The Herald." It was his valedictory. Dr. S. A. Steel, one of the brightest minds in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, writes of it as follows: "I am writing to call attention to the masterly review of Brightman by Bishop Cooke. It is one of the most lucid expositions of Methodist theology I have read in a long time—logical, eloquent and unanswerable. Bishop Cooke speaks with the clearness and force of one who is assured of the truth, no interrogation marks about his theology. The truth of the matter is that Methodist theology is the only highway across the swamps of theological speculation. All these modern theories of a finite God, plural God, impersonal God, are so many blind alleys. Brightman's trail ends at the edge of a bottomless abyss; Cooke's at the pearly gate of the New Jerusalem." His friends wish he might have lived to read the opinions of his review of Brightman. His heart would have been gladdened, his eyes would have flashed with pleasure, and his faith would have mounted like eagles in their flight. Who knows but what such experiences are now his at the pearly gate of the New Jerusalem?

J. M. Melear.

REV. J. T. WARE

The Rev. Joseph Thackery Ware was born in Camden County, N. J., August 29, 1859, and died November 23, 1931, in Pickens County, Georgia. Early in life he moved to Iowa, and in 1892 came to Georgia when he united with the Georgia Conference. In 1894 he was admitted to full membership in the Conference, and ordained deacon by Bishop Ninde. In 1897 he was ordained elder by Bishop Foss. For several years he traveled some of the hardest circuits in the Conference. He was a man of fine judgment, high ideals, a consecrated worker, and a true brother to man. On every charge, whether large or small, he was alike faithful to his duties as a pastor. He carefully observed the rules respecting the religious instruction of children. As a church builder he was especially successful. On the Cohutta circuit he built a much-needed church. On Towns circuit he built a church—a power in the country. At Ellijay he built a church where others had failed. At Blue Ridge he built a parsonage when everything was against him. At all of these points the building established the church. Early in his ministry he married Miss Luvena Moss, of Ludville. She was a young woman of superior judgment, of deep piety, and with him she shared the toils of the ministry. They reared a nice family of three girls and one son, all of whom did well and are an honor to their parents. After twelve years of strenuous work in Georgia, our brother transferred to the Holston Conference, and for thirteen more years did effective work there, retiring in 1916. For years he traveled his large circuits on foot. Years ago Mrs. Ware died, and he made his home with his daughters. His excessive labors broke his health, and for several years before his death he was a great sufferer. He tried many remedies, but all in vain. In the midst of all his affliction he was patient. He died at the home of his youngest daughter, Mrs. Hamrick, and was buried beside his wife, near Ludville. Faithful unto death.

—R. H. Robb.

MRS. A. A. NEWMAN

Catherine Louise Newman was born December 13, 1850, and died March 1, 1932. She was married to the Rev. A. A. Newman October 9, 1877, and to this union were born seven children, five daughters and two sons, of which the sons and two daughters are still living. Mrs. Newman professed faith in Christ at an early age and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Dandridge, Tenn. Most of her married life was spent in a Methodist parsonage, as her husband traveled in three different conferences, Kansas, Washington, and Holston, she was ever looking after the interest of the home, and was always a great inspiration to her husband.

Her funeral was conducted to her pastor, J. F. Reed, assisted by Rev. Owens, at Salem Lutheran Church, in Cocke County, Tenn., and the body was laid to rest in the cemetery near by. She is survived by her husband and four children.

The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease;
And, life's long warfare closed at last,
Her soul is found in peace.
Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

MRS. JOHN SANDERS

Louise Jones was born in the State of Virginia on February 19, 1861. She was married to Rev. John Sanders, on January 20, 1886, and shared with him the trial and hardships, the joys and victories of the Methodist ministry until the death of her husband eight years ago.

She was a true wife and helpmeet, devoting herself to the tender care of her husband in loving thoughtfulness during the days of his declining health, making it possible for him to continue his work as pastor and soul-winner when it seemed that his physical energies were exhausted.

After the death of her husband she had been living with her brother-in-law, Rev. F. P. Sanders, where she received the most kindly ministry and care until she was called to her place in the church triumphant on October 19, 1932.

The angel messenger came for her quietly during the night, members of the family finding the lifeless body in bed in an attitude of repose when they went to her room in the morning.

On October 20, 1932, her funeral was held in Maryville, Tennessee, by Rev. O. R. Tarwater, pastor, assisted by Rev. W. H.

Ragan, District Superintendent, and Rev. R. H. Thames, pastor of the Little River Circuit.

Her body was laid to rest beside that of her husband in beautiful Magnolia Cemetery, Maryville, Tennessee.

"Weep not for a sister deceased; our loss is her infinite gain;
A soul out of prison released, and freed from its bodily chain;
With songs let us follow her flight and mount with her spirit above;
Escaped to the mansions of light—lodged in the Eden of love."

MRS. THOMAS H. HODGE

Just at the age when life, to one so intelligent, rich and sweet in experience as she, that mysterious Angel we call Death, but which in reality is the messenger of Immortality, summoned Mrs. Thomas H. Hodge from her quiet and peaceful home on her farm near Piney Flats, Tenn., to join her noble and beloved husband, the Rev. Thomas H. Hodge, for years an outstanding member of Holston Conference, in the heavenly home of eternal sunlight and glory.

It was after sixty-nine years of active, fruitful, beautiful life, a blessing to everybody who knew her, and four and a half months of gentle, patient suffering her white soul without a struggle or a murmur went up the shining highway to that land where they never sicken and die to join that "Innumerable company of angels and the spirits of the just made perfect," and other sweet spirits departed, in the Church Triumphant. Her going was her eternal crowning as a saint of God and good mother.

She was born at Herman, Tennessee, March 11, 1863, and died at Piney Flats, Tennessee, July 15, 1932. Before her marriage to Dr. Hodge she was Mary Morelock. She was the mother of four children, Dr. James Vernon Hodge, Willie Newman Hodge, Mary Elizabeth and Herbert William Hodge, all of whom, except Willie Newman, survive. The grandchildren are, Mildred Ariel Hodge, James Robert Hodge, Virginia Hodge, and Ruth Schoonover.

When a child, Mrs. Hodge gave her heart to Christ, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church and devoted her entire life to the service of God and humanity.

She was ever an inspiration and help to her husband in his heroic and self-sacrificing ministry. She was in every sense a real queen of the parsonage and a blessing to all who entered there. She richly adorned her position as a minister's wife, companion and home-maker. She was known as a most blessed mother and she trained every one of her children to love God and the Church.

Funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon, July 17, in the beautiful little brick Church, at Piney Flats, where she had so often worshipped and inspired the heart of her pastors. The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. W. Matney; Rev.

Luke C. Pickering, Dr. George T. Francisco and the writer. By request of her pastor and the family the writer was asked to make the principle address, as we had taken part in the funeral services of her husband a few years ago at Johnson City. The Church was packed to overflowing by neighbors and friends who knew and loved Mrs. Hodge. The floral offering was wonderful. Her body was left to rest until Jesus comes in beautiful Monte Vista cemetery, at Johnson City, Tennessee.

—William F. Pitts.

MRS. J. H. AMIS

Olive F. Petree was born at Wellspring, Campbell County, Tennessee, February 26, 1858. She was married to Rev. J. H. Amis on October 28, 1884. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church early in life and was a loyal and devoted member until she was called to her place in the church triumphant.

She was the loving mother of four children, helping to make her home a true Christian home and exerting over her children the influence which no one but a Christian mother can have.

To her husband she was a real helpmeet, sharing with him the experiences of the Methodist Itinerancy during twenty-one years of active ministry in the Holston Conference and fourteen years in the Southern California Conference.

She was loyal to her country, her church and her God. A loving mother, a devoted wife, a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, she leaves to loved ones and friends a goodly heritage.

It was on October 14, 1932, during the session of the Holston Conference, of which Brother Amis is a member, that the death angel came and called her gentle spirit away. After nine months of waiting after a stroke of paralysis she exchanged weakness for strength, weariness and pain for joy and peace and eternal youth in the presence of God and loved ones gone before.

The human temple from which her spirit departed was laid to rest in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale, California.

"Why should our tears in sorrow flow when God recalls his own;

And bids them leave a world of woe for an immortal crown?

Is not e'en death a gain to those whose life to God was given?

Gladly to earth their eyes they close, to open them in heaven."

OUR SAINTED DEAD

"These all died in the faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth,"

INFORMATION FOR INSTRUCTORS AND STUDENTS IN THE CONFERENCE COURSE OF STUDY

1. Mid-year examinations will be required. They will be given at the Summer School of Ministerial Training. In the schedule presented on the next page, those subjects to be given at the Summer School are marked with an asterisk (*).

2. The day preceding the opening of the Annual Conference is the time appointed for those examinations which were not given in the Summer School.

3. The students are urged to buy their books at the opening of the year, and study carefully the mid-year subjects; then after the mid-year examinations they should complete the study of the remaining subjects immediately. The instructors are required to correspond with the students throughout the year, giving such aid and direction as will bring the required work to early and successful conclusion. All written work must be in the hands of the instructor for the subject two weeks before the time for examination.

4. The requirements of the Discipline are to make the examinations written, and two weeks before the Annual Conference each instructor is to send his examination questions to the Chairman of the Board.

5. The Chairman of each group is to submit in writing the grades of the students in his department to the registrar.

6. The Board of Ministerial Training and the students in the courses of study will meet at the place of the next Annual Conference of four o'clock in the afternoon of the day preceding the opening of the Conference, to check the records of the students and to prepare the report of the Board to the Annual Conference.

7. For further information read the Report of the Board of Ministerial Training, found elsewhere in this Journal.
